Cabinet
Curated by Adam Milner

June 16-July 15, 2017

Opening Reception: Friday, June 16, 2017, 6-9pm

Free and open to the public

Cabinet is a space for things. Over one hundred works mingle and share the space, creating new narratives and frameworks which the viewer must actively sort through. The exhibition is simultaneously intimate and sprawling, modest and monumental. Works point to pasts and futures: at times, an object serves as an artifact, memento, souvenir, or trace; other times it becomes a proposal or speculation. In this space, the gallery, store, and museum merge and become complicated, as a history of collecting (in all its forms) is drawn upon. Cabinet features works by:

About David B. Smith Gallery

David B. Smith Gallery is committed to presenting intelligent and culturally relevant exhibitions in its Denver location, featuring the region's most important emerging talent alongside internationally recognized artists. Through its curatorial program, participation in art fairs, and extensive media coverage in publications such as Art in America and ARTnews, David B. Smith Gallery has cultivated a strong regional, national and international collector audience. The New York Times hailed the gallery as offering "an exciting contrast of cutting edge works" and The Denver Post declared that it is the "premiere commercial space" in Denver. The gallery also maintains an active publishing division, which produces exhibition catalogues and editions.
